THE SIGMA ETA

FOREWORD

As the Good Ship S. H. S. sails the Sea of Knowledge in search of the Isle of Know, many things befall the crew. To be a log in which to preserve your memories of the eventful voyage is this 1956 SIGMA ETA.

DEDICATION

Sanchez

We dedicate this Sigma Eta of 1956 to MISS CELESTE FOSTER because she is such a shining example of all the good things that a teacher should be. Quiet, patient, refined, dedicated to her profession, she is, and in every noble undertaking willing to go the second mile. We love and honor her now, and we believe that we can never outlive her beautiful influence over our days at Slocomb High.

CLASS HISTORY

In September, 1944, the good ship "Destination '56" set sail on the Sea of Knowledge with Miss Opal Garner and Miss Elizabeth Davis at the helm. The passengers and sometimes involuntary crew members were Rex Blount, Wayland Childs, Edwin Davis, Cecil Davis, Grady Harris, Wallace Killingsworth, Lamar May, Connie Mills, Wesley Mitchell, Herman Sorrells, Kenneth Vinson, Billy Watson, Helen Burdeshaw, Lillian Collins, Bonnie Collins Fulford, Rebecca Hundley, Hattie Metcalf, Glenda Riley, Sue Smith, Johnnie Maude Smith, Jean Spivey, Faye Thurman, Martha White, Joel Wright, and Emmie Crawford.

In 1945, our second year on the Sea of Knowledge, we had other captains to take over our ship, "Destination '56". They were Miss Maude Hughes and Mrs. D. D. Stephens. Miss Maude Hughes was relieved of the task by "Holy Matrimony". Miss Helen Metcalf took over where Miss Hughes left off. Soon we learned to like and obey Miss Metcalf. We had a new member to come aboard with us, Charles Avery from Dothan.

Our third year on board was guided by Mrs. Blennie Underwood and Miss Frances Richards. The icy rooms of the Community Building will be hard to forget. Mrs. Underwood showed us that she meant business when she carried us behind the book case. This made some impression on us! Kenneth Vinson transferred to another ship. Loyd Coker and Joel Tew from Tate, and Joel Williams from Burns embarked with us and away we sailed.

During our fourth year we learned to maneuver in the proper manner under the guidance of our new captains, Mrs. Sybil Sellers and Mrs. Annie Lois Wiggins. New crew members added that year were Donald Bolin from Tate, Laurie Jane Patterson and Betty Carol Purvis from Malvern. Faye Thurman packed her duffel bag and went to Fadette.

The next year was our fifth year and we were beginning to feel our importance. Mrs. Mayme Grant McArthur and Mrs. Mary Lou Richards as our sponsors, soon showed us we were not so very important. We shall never forget the way we paid for every misspelled word in Mrs. Richard's room--a lick for every word missed. Those that joined us this year were Don Callihan from Hartford, Katie Box from Fadette, and Kenneth Vinson returned to us from Malvern.

In the sixth grade one of our captains was promoted and we had the privilege of having Mrs. Blennie Underwood again. She was assisted by Mrs. Bernice Hornsby and Mrs. Ruby Collins. We had two members to leave us this year. They were Cecil Davis who went to Fadette and Betty Carol Purvis who went to Malvern. Those that joined us this year were Randall Collins from Malvern and Betty Ruth Rash from Fadette. This year we were a little restless for this was our year to graduate from grammar school. We were half way through our long journey on the Sea of Knowledge.

This, our seventh year in school, found us in high school. We were starting on our second half of the voyage on the Sea of Knowledge. We were a little excited but soon Miss Celeste Foster and Mrs. Elizabeth Watson made us feel at ease. This year Lamar May transferred to Phenix City. Louise Justice was added to our roster.

By the time we entered the eighth grade we had become well adjusted to our new school routines. Miss Norma Foster and Mrs. Charles Dalton manned the ship for a smooth sailing year. We had two new members to come aboard--Joyce Williams from Tate and Ima Jean Register from Fadette.

The ninth year was under the command of Mrs. Kathleen Richards and Mr. Joe Earl Sellers. We were beginning to see that it would not be long before we would be Seniors. Betty Carol Purvis returned to our ship from Malvern.

Our crew really increased at the beginning of the tenth year with Mrs. Paul Dalton and Coach David Snell at command. Those who came to us from Fadette were Morris Holloway, Gerald Kirkland, Wallace Powell, Jack Smith, Jackie Tew, Annette Hamm, Martha Hodges, Betty Jean Martin, and Jean Whitaker. Transferring from Malvern were Phillip Pippin, Lorena Bedsole, Vallie Founrain, Jo Ann Hall, Willie Dell Hall, June Holloway, Neva Jo McClenny, and Dolores Pippin. Tate sent us Richard Carroll, Joyce Meadows and Bessie Moss. From Baker in Columbus came Merle Smith and Faye Thurman. Sara McDonald came from Black and Mary Tidwell from Cottonwood. We began to receive a few honors in school activities this year. Those elected for Who's Who were Joel Wright and Morris Holloway. Sue Smith and Louise Justice took the spotlight as cuties. Jean Spivey was elected to the cheering squad and Jo Ann Hall Graham reigned as Halloween Queen.

As we boarded the ship in the eleventh grade, we realized that we were coming closer to the time when we must soon change ships and our paths would seldom cross. Miss Celeste Foster and Mrs. Burnell Armstrong took command. Honors really began to come our way on this voyage. Representing us in Who's Who were Jackie Tew, Jean Spivey, Rex Blount, Louise Justice, Charles Avery, Sue Smith, Willie Dell Hall, and Tiny Hall Hollis. Joyce Meadows was elected Homecoming Maid. Jean Whitaker was elected to be a cheerleader and Jean Spivey remained with the squad. Robert Kelley signed aboard our ship this year and Lamar May returned. Hot dog selling got pretty tiresome, but it was not in vain for we entertained the class of '55, the faculty, and the school board members royally with our "Moonlight and Roses" banquet held at the Houston Hotel.

On our twelfth voyage the honor were rally ours as Laurie Jane Patterson, Rex Blount, Cecil Davis, Ima Jean Register, Charles Avery, Grady Harris, Jean Spivey, Herman Sorrells, Louise Justice, Jean Whitaker, Joyce Meadows, and Sue Smith were elected for Who's Who. Sue Smith reigned as Homecoming Queen and Emmie Crawford won the title of "Miss Slocumb". Willie Dell Hall was chosen as Good Citizenship Girl and proudly won the title of county Citizenship Girl. Don Callihan and Jackie Tew were elected football captains, and Joel Wright and Ima Jean Register were added to the cheering squad.

The gangplank is now being lowered after our final voyage. There are tears of gladness as well as sorrow as we find ourselves nearly ready to embark on a new life. We have memories that will remain with us forever. Mrs. Ida Bell Phinney, our Senior III sponsor, stands at the stern and watches all sixty-one of us as we leave our ship, "Destination '56", never to board it again. As we stand in a new world, we stand with heavy hearts, but we are ever mindful that God will be our pilot on the Ship of Life.

Rex Blount
Historian

PROPECY

Sail Ho, Matey! The gangplank has just been rigged in and we are on our way today, May 18, 1976, to another meeting of our old mates from the class of '56. It has been a stormy life for some of us and smooth sailing for others. As I look from the crow's nest with my super atomic binoculars, I see our mates as they pass in their present status.

First I turn my binoculars to the starward bow and I see my old friend Herman Sorrells, who is now captain of an ocean liner. The chow is prepared by Chief Cook Wallace Powell, and their health is kept in excellent condition by the very capable Doctor Martha Hodges and nurse Betty Carol Purvis.

Anchored off the Hawaiian shores I see Admiral Cecil Davis. The island is infested with old buddies. At the Coconut Paradise I see Rex Blount and his jazz band practicing. There are the renowned fan dancers known as the Uga Girls--Vallie Fountain, Bessie Moss, Helen Burdeshaw, and Doloris Pippins--waiting for their cue. Comedian Randall Collins, is in a corner of the Blue Room killing a joke. Martha White, a talented singer, is sucking a lemon and waiting for Rex to tell her "when."

The famed Royal Hawaiian Hotel is equally as popular. In the beautiful pool is the Olympic swimming champion, Jean Spivey. Watching Jean perform are the three bell boys, Jimmy Brown, Joel Williams, and Jack Smith. Seated near the pool is Willie Dell Hall who is now the wife of an air force officer. Thousands are drawn to this hotel because of their famous foods that are supervised by their caterer, Merle Smith, assisted by Betty Rash. As I look at the roster I see registered the popular TV stars, Katie Box and Faye Thurman, Emmie Crawford, who is Miss America, multi-millionaire Wayland Childs, and Models Sue Smith, Joann Hall, and Joyce Meadows.

Now I turn my binoculars where I can see our own terra firma--the United States. Over in a wooded area I see Billy Watson inspecting his plantation. Not too far away I see Louise Justice and Bonnie Collins Fulford supremely happy being farmers' wives. Donald Bolin has a large cattle farm.

A few of us continued our education. Morris Holloway is the principal at Fadette. Lillian Collins teaches the first grade, Rebecca Hundley social studies, Johnnie Maude Smith English, and Annette Hamm directs the daily calisthenics.

The new telephone exchange at Malvern is very modernistic. It is managed by June Holloway, Neva Jo McClenny, and Jean Whitaker.

Over close to Burns Church I see Jackie Tew, who is a mail carrier, stuck in the mud. Connie Mills, also a mail carrier, is trying to pull him out.

Zooming over the city of Slocomb are the two ace jet pilots--Loyd Coker and Wesley Mitchell.

Joel Tew and Richard Carroll are the very best known criminal lawyers. Their secretaries are Joyce Williams and Bobbie Palmer.

At the corner of Railroad Street and Trash Alley I see a large super market owned by Grady Harris. His employees are many but best known are the delivery boys--Wallace Killingsworth and Edwin Davis.

In Washington, D.C., our country is being run by an expert--President Robert Kelley. The murals in the capitol are being changed by our very own artist, Lamar May. Standing at attention in the Arlington Cemetery is Buck Private Phillip Pippin. Congressman Charles Avery and Senator Don Callihan are busy preparing a bill that will prohibit employees from working more than four days a week.

Madison Square Garden is a complete sellout. Gerald Kirkland will challenge Kenneth Vinson tonight for the heavyweight championship.

Betty Jean Martin, the Governor of Alaska's wife, is in Washington with the governor's secretary, Ima Jean Register. She has come to have her clothes designed by the famous designers Laurie Jane Patterson and Joel Wright.

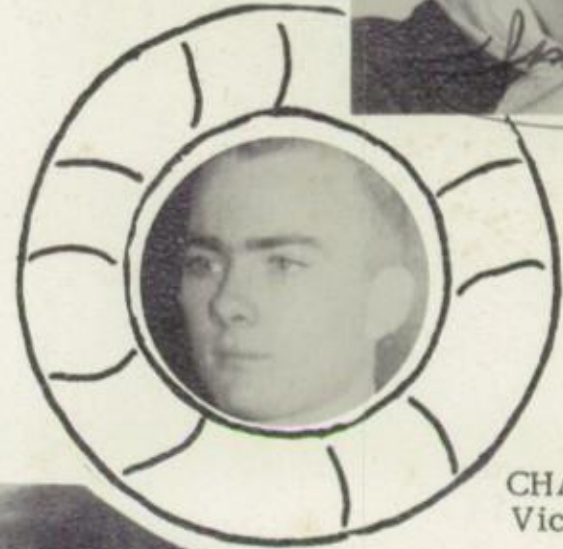

To the right of the Mall is Riley Business College owned by Glenda Riley. Her instructors are Sara McDonald, Mary Tidwell, and Hattie Metcalf.

As I live and breathe, that gets all of us. Now, Matey, to the port where we can anchor our ship and wait for the reunion of the class of '56.

We, the members of the graduating class of '56' being of sound and sane mind do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last Will and Testament, making all other wills void.

We, Neva Jo McClenny, Joann Hall, and Lorena Bedsole, leave our positions in the senior class to Ann McClenny, Ellen Bolin, and Nelda Lott.

I, Charles Avery, leave my ability to be late for school to anyone who likes to sleep as much as I do.

I, Katie Box, will my love for English to Jimmie Lou Hall.

We, Jimmy Brown, Richard Carroll, and Phillip Pippin, will our buses as an excuse to miss business law to Charles Thorne, Frasier Clark, and Huey Brannon.

I, Helen Burdeshaw, will my ability to get a boyfriend and hold him to Ann Kirkland.

I, Rex Blount, will my ability to get along with the girls to Jimmy Pitt Silavent.

I, Lillian Collins, leave my prissy walk to Glenda Merritt.

I, Donald Bolin, will my ability to get along with Mr. Strickland to Mitchell Pippin.

I, Emmie Crawford, leave my hours in the office to Joy Battles.

I, Wayland Childs, will my ability to learn geometry to Keller Hollis.

We, Vallie Fountain and Dolores Pippin, leave our ability to play hooky to Jimmie Hawkins and Elouise Merritt.

I, Loyd Coker, will my business law book to anyone stupid enough to want it.

I, Bonnie Fulford, will my position as president of the I.R.C. to Bobby Flournoy.

We, Randall Collins and Herman Sorrells, will our ability to get along with the teachers to Tommy Kelly and Charles Killingsworth.

I, Willie Dell Hall, will my ability to run up and down the hall to someone with short legs and lots of energy.

I, Edwin Davis, will leave, I hope.

I, Annette Hamm, leave my talking ability to anyone who can talk more than I.

I, Cecil Davis, will my ability not to go steady with girls to Keller Hollis.

I, Martha Hodges, will my fallen arches from walking to the bank for Mrs. Phinney to anyone who hasn't more sense.

I, Grady Harris, will give the teachers at "Alabama" heck.

I, June Holloway, will my ability to work bookkeeping to anyone who can.

I, Morris Holloway, will my weight to Thurman Carroll.

I, Robert Kelly, leave my work on the Herald-Observer to Gerald Smith.

I, Rebecca Hundley, leave my job of keeping Mrs. Phinney's register to Nelda Lott.

I, Gerald Kirkland, will my excess energy to Douglas Campbell.

We, Louise Justice and Johnnie Maude Smith, leave shorthand class forever.

I, Lamar May, will my knowledge of how to work physics to Billie Grace Ketchum.

I, Sara McDonald, will my laughing ability to Robbie Fondren.

I, Wesley Mitchell, leave my ability to get along with the teachers to anyone with patience.

We, Hattie Metcalf and Bobbie Jean Palmer, will our height to Janice Yeomans and Sarah Hughes.

I, Jack Smith, will my love for "Macbeth" to Huey Lee Brannon.

I, Joyce Meadows, leave my bashful ways to Jane Nell Davidson.

I, Betty Martin, will my ability to sing to Betty Smith.

We, Jackie Tew and Don Callihan, will our positions as co-captains to the choice of the football boys and hope that they will enjoy it.

I, Bessie Moss, will my business ability to Hattie Bass.

I, Joel Tew, will my shorthand book and grades to anyone who wants them.

I, Laurie Jane Patterson, will my job as Class Editor of the annual to Martha Joy Battles and hope she will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Kenneth Vinson, will my ability to sleep in class to anyone who can get away with it.

I, Betty Purvis, will my ability to get back my boyfriend to Jimmie Hawkins.

I, Billy Watson, will my studious nature to Wallace Chestnut.

I, Betty Rash, will my ability to make mistakes in bookkeeping to Janiece Woods.

I, Joel Williams, will my Duck Head overalls to "Moose" Sheffield.

I, Ima Jean Register, will my slim waist-line to Maxine Clark.

I, Glenda Riley, will my position as Mrs. Phinney's cook to Barbara Byrd.

I, Jean Spivey, will my position as captain of the cheerleaders to Jannie Baxley.

I, Faye Thurman, will my job as Annual Circulation Manager to some poor unfortunate critter, hoping they will have more success than I have.

I, Sue Smith, will my beaten drum to some other dumb drummer.

I, Merle Smith, will my smiles and energetic ways to Wynell Tate.

I, Jean Whitaker, will the rest of my bottle of peroxide to Barbara Toole.

I, Martha White, will my position as majorette in the Slocumb High School Band to Miss Florida.

I, Joyce Williams, will my long wavy hair to Ann Hamm.

I, Joel Wright, will my position as president of the Beta Club to anyone who will enjoy working as much as I have.

IN MEMORIAM

Billy Arnold (1934-1955)

"E'en as he trod that day to God so walked he from his birth,
In simpleness and gentleness and honour and clean mirth."

--Kipling

B-rief was his life,
I-nspiring those around him with L-ove and
L-oyalty to school, teachers, classmates of Y-esteryear.

A-lways cheerful and cooperative
R-egardless of personal grief;
N-ever complaining
O-f pain nor the bitterness of L-eaving too soon the D-ear, unfinished adventure on this earth.

KELLER HOLLIS

September 23, 1938--February 15, 1956

A soul of beauty is a joy forever:
Its loveliness increases; it will never Pass into nothingness; but still will keep
A bower quiet for us, and a sleep
Full of sweet dreams, and health, and quiet breathing.

--John Keats

Yes, we're boys--always playing with tongue or with pen;
And I sometimes have asked, Shall we ever be men?
Shall we always be youthful and laughing
and gay,
Till the last dear companion drops smiling away?

Then here's to our boyhood, its gold and its gray!
The stars of its winter, the dewes of its May!
And when we have done with our life-
lasting toys,
Dear Father, take care of the children,
The Boys!

--Oliver Wendell Holmes

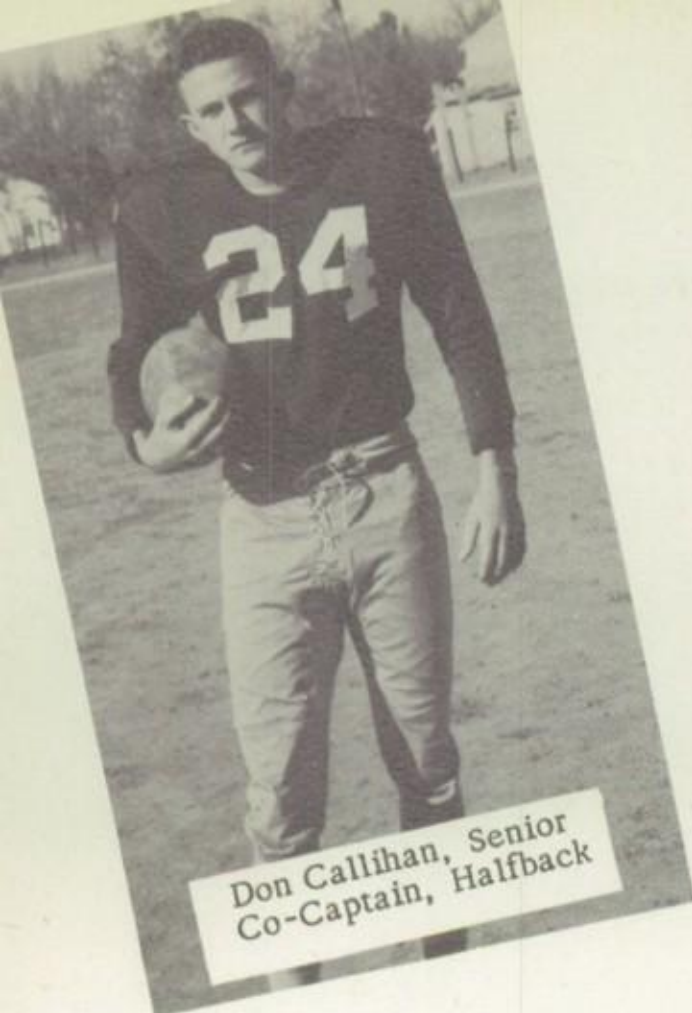

LAVAUGHN PHILLIPS

May 3, 1939--February 13, 1956

With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you--oh, you, who the wildest yearn
For an old time step, and the glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.
Think of him still as the same. I say,
He is not dead--he is just away.
